

The University of Prishtina “Hasan Prishtina” will organize the 15th edition of Prishtina International Summer University, which will be held from 1-15 July 2015. UPISU will be offering thirteen credited courses covering a wide range of study fields such as social sciences, law, economics, arts, education, medicine, engineering, linguistics, agronomic, journalism etc. All courses will be held only in English. After the successful fulfillment of the course, the participants will get certificates according to the European System for Transferring the Credits (ECTS). In addition, a recreational program will be offered to the students and personnel, including different excursions and events from the cultural life. Information for the forums and events will be published widely at the University of Prishtina during the Summer Courses.

The 15th Edition of the PISU is open to all students and will help all participants to gain from new methods of lecturing and research as well as enjoying the international atmosphere. As set by the traditional program itself, this year's program also bring together regional & international professors and lecturers for a period of two weeks and provide the opportunity for local and international students to learn and share their experiences.
